

Media Consent & Liability Disclaimer

Tshwane Super League Tournament

By participating in the Tshwane Super League (“TSL”) Tournament, all players, parents/guardians (in the case of minors), coaches, and spectators acknowledge and agree to the terms outlined below:

Media Consent

Participation in the TSL Tournament grants TSL the right to capture, use, and publish:

- Photographs
- Video footage
- Player names, team names, and match-related statistics

These may appear on:

- The official TSL website
- TSL social media platforms
- Promotional and marketing materials
- Press releases or sponsor communications

This media may be used without compensation, for the purpose of promoting TSL events, programmes, and community engagement.

Minors

If a participant is under the age of 18, consent is considered granted by the parent or legal guardian completing the registration or allowing the minor to participate in the event.

Opt-Out Procedure

Where reasonable and practical, participants may request limited non-disclosure by contacting TSL in writing ahead of the tournament. TSL will take all reasonable steps to honour such requests; however, due to the nature of public sporting events, complete exclusion from media cannot be guaranteed.

Accuracy of Published Information

Match results, player data, and team information are published in good faith for sporting purposes. TSL is not liable for:

- Inadvertent inaccuracies
- Unauthorised third-party sharing or reposting
- Any damages arising from the publication of sporting content
